Dear UEN School Leaders:

Governor Reynolds signed many education-related bills into law on Friday, June 6, including HF 787 TSS (Education Omnibus Bill). The Education Appropriations Bill, Standings Bill, and Sports Wagering Fund Appropriations Bill ($14 million for Education Support Personnel), not yet signed, are still on her agenda for this week, as her deadline for action is June 15.

Here is a list of what was signed by the Governor on Friday:

- HF 189: Nonpublic Student Participation in Public School Athletics
- HF 395: School Bus Driver Courses
- HF 706: Open Meetings and Open Records Penalties and Training
- HF 784: Governor's Math Initiative
- HF 787: TSS Education Omnibus
- HF 870: Students in Private Religious Instruction

- HF 890: Community College Reporting and Instructor Contracts
- SF 175: Pregnancy and Fetal Development Curriculum Content

You are invited to attend this week's ISFIS Special Topic Webinar to hear details about all of the 2025 Session Actions impacting schools around policy bills (policies, mandates, flexibility and others). Register Here for the webinar this Thursday, June 12th, at 2pm. Also, you can access the Recording and Accompanying PPT from last week's ISFIS Special Topic Webinar explaining 2025 Session Action with education fiscal impacts.

See the Enrolled Bills List on the Legislative Website for the status of any other bills that might interest you here:
